PRESIDENT'S REPORT

This is my final President's report. Before writing this, I reflected on my term and realise what a major impact the COVID-19 related events of March 2020, and beyond, have had on us all. We are only starting to see some small gains to our membership, but it hasn't been enough to "plug the hole in the leaky bucket" as I referred to our membership numbers last year. As a group, we need to come together and put much more into this one area of promoting our sport, either through membership drives or our events being broadcast to a larger audience. Of course, this has been the burning question during, not just my time in the seat, but many in the seat before me. One aspect that we may need to address is to look at other sports and start asking questions around what they have done to change their future path when needed. Also, the need to find major sponsors, without whom we are running the realistic risk of not being able to deliver our many amazing events.

Social media is an amazing thing and over the years it has become a large part of how we communicate. Sadly, it also has such a dark side to it. I, for one, haven't looked at my personal Facebook page since August 2020 as I couldn't stand the thought of reading negative opinions after negative opinions from uninformed members of the community. Everyone has the right to their opinion and, believe me, I have one as well. However, when the commentary is unnecessarily negative and needlessly personal, the messenger risks losing their credibility and, probably, any chance of their concerns being effectively addressed. I have always stressed that I was available to listen and comment on behalf of the Executive Committee, providing our perspective on the subject being discussed was allowed to be heard.

The 2023 Executive has been nominated, unopposed, for the coming year to govern our sport and make decisions that they believe are in the best interest of ALL members. Not every decision the Executive takes will be popular with all stakeholders, or guarantee a successful outcome, but without the freedom to try a new or different approach in various areas, how will we ever know what can be achieved? To those that enjoy the security of hiding behind a keyboard whilst attacking the people that are giving up an enormous amount of their personal time for the game we all love, I encourage you to work constructively with those same people for the betterment of the game. Actually, why not stand up and look to gain a seat at the Executive Committee's table and, therefore, be in a position to help make positive change. Visiting Facebook would be a much nicer experience if it was full of positive stories from all our districts and would certainly make better reading by potential sponsors that are considering attaching their brand to ours.

In May of this year we were all very saddened by the passing of Helen Stallard after a brief illness. Helen was my rock throughout my term as President, and I must say that the Executive, especially myself, struggled for a large part of the year due to her absence. We did, however, get through to the end of the season. Perhaps not as perfectly as I would have hoped, but we got there. It is amazing to realise just how much one person achieves in the background, and it was certainly due to the loss of her institutional knowledge that we missed the mark in a few key areas of the operation. Perhaps we have lost a bit of respect over some issues, but I'm pretty proud of the hard work that the Executive has done to make sure we didn't drop every ball without Helen's presence.

To all the districts that ran our events and continued to provide support for the clubs in your respective areas of the country, I offer a big "thank you".

I thank the whole Matside team, especially Joy and Dave Archer, for what you have done for our sport. Matside's live-streaming of our events will, I hope, continue to be a major part of our sport and a key component of our growth.

To all umpires, coaches and everyone who stands up to help at district and club level, thank you on behalf of the Executive.

To the Executive Committee: Graham, David, Barry, Liz, Roy and Wayne, thank you for your selfless commitment over the past year. I wish you all the best for the coming season.

Thank you and take care,

Michael Lawson

UMPIRES REPORT

The role of the Umpire in our game is an important part of ensuring that players are playing within the rules of the game, providing decisions when players are not sure of the rules and determining the result of an end played when players request assistance. To all those active umpires across the country I extend our thanks to you all for this important role you play in our sport.

It was great to meet with umpires at the Nationals in New Plymouth and discuss some aspects of the Umpires role. This is a great time to hear what other Umpires are doing in their role and discuss the application of the rules. Thanks to those who attended and provide their services at the Nationals.

The list of umpires continues to decline, and districts are encouraged to promote the role of Umpires in their districts. It was encouraging to have nine new Umpires pass the exam this year. With the new system of multi choice questions and rule books in the exam, it is not as daunting to face the theory exam as has been in the past.

To all those umpires who have officiated at events, both National and local, I thank you for your time and dedication to support our game. Your efforts are very much appreciated by all the players and executives.

On behalf of the NZIB Executive, I extend our thanks to all Umpires for their contribution to our game.

NATIONAL PUBLICITY OFFICER'S REPORT

It has been a pleasure holding this position for the past four seasons, however, as noted in the October minutes, I will not be continuing in my role as publicity officer next year.

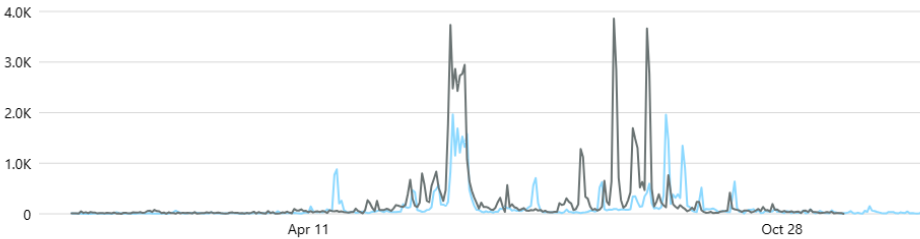

We have a great community of bowlers and I have particularly enjoyed having a 'front row seat' to people's stories and successes. There were plenty that emerged just from this year's National Championships alone.

From a social media perspective, it was great to see more people engaging with the official NZ Indoor Bowls Facebook page. There was a significant increase in page visits compared to last year, as shown in the graph below.

Visits

Facebook visits ⓘ

77,889 ↑ 75.2%

We gained a little more airtime on radio stations this year, which was fantastic, but the biggest highlight was securing a five minute live cross on TVNZ Breakfast. What an opportunity for our sport to be on mainstream broadcasting platform. I would like to thank those who gave up their time to make these media opportunities a success.

On that note, I wish the incoming publicity officer all the best in the role.

SPECIAL AWARDS 2022

Club of the Year: The Mount Junior Club - Tauranga

Six years ago, a dream was mooted of having a club for Intermediate age children competing in the Aims Games. After introducing the concept to some 35 classes there was tremendous interest in a game which allowed all to participate.

Along with new skills the players have learnt to govern their club with assistance from adults when and if required. Four members have achieved in Senior competitions. Junior Club members are now assisting in exposing the sport to local schools accompanying adults to 'Have a Go' days.

Forming this club has allowed juniors to develop their skills through basic coaching procedures; to enjoy a sport which is non-physical but a mental challenge and to enjoy the social aspects of being amongst their own peers.

Volunteer of the Year: Jenny Williams, Upper Hutt

Jenny is the heart of everything Upper Hutt - Upper Hutt would fall flat on their face if it wasn't for Jenny.

She single-handedly coordinated both the North vs South Event in August to the September Super weekend with its six events. She was the first to arrive in the morning and the one to lock up each night. Her contribution was not only on the playing days but in the lead up to the events, sorting meals, fruit and biscuits and everything else required.

Her contribution to the Upper Hutt Association this year has been phenomenal and a testament to her character. A much-loved member by all who deal with her.

For Outstanding Services to the Sport of Indoor Bowls: Ev Bissett, Central Otago

This award is awarded for consistent, continued and entirely voluntary efforts to promote our sport.

Ev has been instrumental for organizing the Cromwell Bowling Club for over 16 years as secretary of the club.

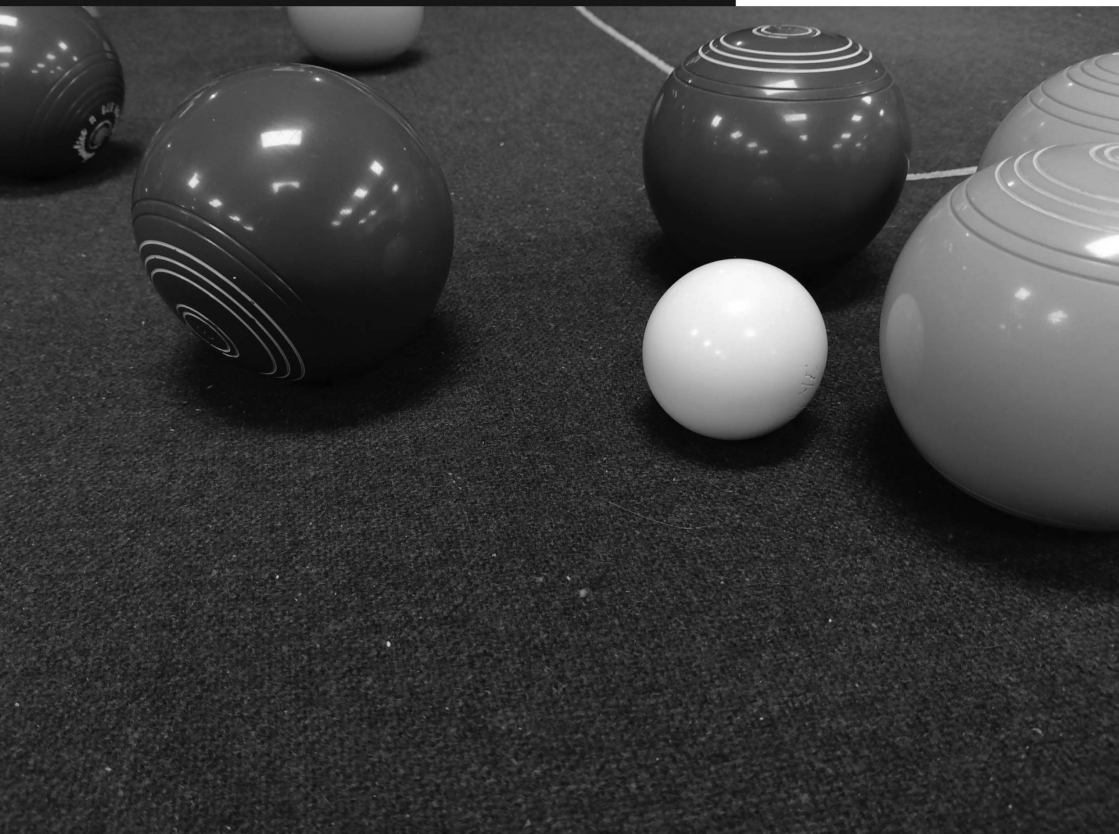

She has been responsible for organizing social bowls in Cromwell and over 6 years this has grown from 2-3 attending to over 35. Social bowlers are now starting to convert into playing members and playing in Central Otago events.

Ev is also secretary for Central Otago a position she has held for 15 years. She organizes the calendar for the year, funding applications, transport and accommodation for travelling teams, organizes uniforms and has all trophies engraved. She participates in all Central Otago events and is a valued member of the Ladies 8's and Paterson Teams.
